Political Intolerance.

An amusing if not instructive incident occurred in the usual quiet of the first ward of our city the other day. It appears that Mr. X. is the Agent of the owner of a small dwelling house situated in the first ward—the owner, by the way, is a decided and strong Republican. Mrs. Y., a new comer, wishes to rent an unoccupied part of the house and goes to the Agent in charge to obtain the same; the terms are satisfactory, and she moves in at once; but just as before settling down into home comforts, she learns to her, it seems, perfect surprise, that the Agent in charge is a Democrat. Mrs. Y. is a lady of the Republican persuasion; she flies at once to the tenant occupying the other half, and this amusing dialogue ensues:

Mrs. Y.—Do you know what sort of a man Mr. X. is?
Tenant.—Why, I think I do. I have known him a good while.
Mrs. Y.—Well, I have just learned; they say he is a Democrat, a regular Copperhead, and I don't stay in his house a minute; and if you are a Republican I would advise you to move out, or you will have trouble. My husband is a Republican and he would not let me live in a house owned by a Copperhead!

The indignant dame at once repacked her household goods, and shaking the dust off her shoes, left the premises in strong disgust. The Agent was much to blame in this matter; he ought to have informed the lady of the complexion of his politics. Let him take warning by this!

Mr. Vallandigham

Was sent into rebellion, under strong guard of U. S. officials, Monday last. He protested against this act, declaring himself a "citizen of Ohio; loyal to the U. S.; and that his escort were taking a prisoner to the Confederate authorities." Well may every lover of Constitutional Liberty drop a tear over the finality of Free Institutions. Thank Heaven, no Democrat will be called on to answer for this insult to the memory of Washington, La Fayette and Patrick Henry! It was left to Abolitionists in the 19th century, with all the advantages of a high civilization, to manufacture the coffin; and to entomb the bleeding corpse: "Honor to whom honor is due!"

When you hear a man saying he belongs to the "Union League"; that he is willing to vote his last dollar to carry on this war; that he knows the rebellion will never end till slavery is abolished; that any man who don't agree with him in these opinions is a traitor;—bear it in mind that he "loves darkness (the nigger) better than light (the Union), because his deeds are evil." When it becomes necessary for a man to wear a sign (joining the League) in order that his neighbors may believe him such, keep your eye on him—he is the vilest impostor.

PARDONED.—Albert Horn, who was convicted in October last, in the U. S. Circuit Court, of having fitted out the slaver City of Norfolk, and sentenced to imprisonment for five years, has been released from the Eldridge street jail by U. S. Marshal Murray. Pres't Lincoln has granted him a free pardon.—Exchange.

Had a Democratic President "granted a free pardon," under such circumstances, what a howl would have come from every Republican in the land!

REPUBLICAN LOGIC.—Republicans in justifying Vallandigham's arrest and banishment, after argument fails them, fall back on the perille cry: "Burnside is a Democrat and would do no wrong." So was Satan an Angel of Light, but he fell from grace and was kicked out of Heaven for his utter depravity! Burnside and Beelzebub! the B's that disgraced Heaven and Earth!

REASONED.—John W. Carhart, Jr., has resigned his position as U. S. Deputy Collector for Outagamie Co. Reason: it didn't pay! The Republicans cautioned all day Tuesday, and finally R. R. Bateman allowed himself to be tricked into the place! Other "Union Leaguers" were willing to be similarly treated! How Republicans hate of free!

Chicago Canal.—Hon. Ezra Wheeler, and Walter McIndoe are opposed to the Chicago Canal project. Judge Wheeler has published his views on the subject. Considerable opposition is being manifested to this measure.

Look Out for the Chicago Canal Convention next Tuesday. Appleton should look in there to keep the Chicagoans out of mischief!

When you hear a man saying he "didn't wish to talk—he wanted to fight; that the war was too far off,"—set him down as going to the war only when a fat contract can be secured and when the danger from bullets has vanished. Remember also that he opposed the President until the Emancipation Proclamation was issued.

"A RADICAL VICTORY."—Abolition process are just now busy heralding "a great radical victory" in Saint Louis. Every vote cast was for emancipation. Why? "All opposed to the policy of Administration; in that city, were sent South, or awed into perfect silence—complete slavery of mind—by the Military. Such are Republican victories!"

When you hear a man saying he "always stood by McClellan until after the battle of Antietam and until he was removed by the President,"—set him down as a lying "Niggerhead," who never did anything but abuse McClellan from the first to the last of his military Generalship!

WHAT does the Milwaukee Sentinel mean by continually showing their "Accountant Labels" at us from day to day—the last one bearing date "May 29." We have puffed you, and blowed you, and published your prospectus! Is not this sufficient?

ENGLAND VS. THE U. S.—The recent termination of the Vallandigham matter says, in unmistakable language—England has her Botany Bay, the United States her "Beyond the Lines!"

IMPORTANT.—The respective Supreme Courts of Ohio and New York have decided the U. S. Treasury Notes to be legal tender! A good decision.

WIS. REG'TS WITH GRANT.—The 8th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 17th, 18th, 20th and 33d regiments were with Grant in his late battles.

A Syracuse paper states that Mrs. Vallandigham has become insane in consequence of the fright experienced by her husband's midnight arrest!

A Norwegian Company has begun manufacturing tar at Grand Traverse, Mich.

We find the following in the Lake Superior Journal of the 22d:

Late this afternoon, the 22d, the fire in the woods was driven by the wind into the village of Harvey, Mich., and of late accounts it was the worst of the season. The store, office, saw-mill, and two large boarding houses of the Northern Iron Co., the dwellings of C. T. Harvey, James Caniff, with a large amt of other property, was utterly destroyed.

War News.

MEXICO, May 25.—By the arrival of the Luminary, we get the following sketch of the campaign of Gen. Grant since the 15th inst:

On the 15th the larger part of the army lay stretched out from a point a few miles west of Raymond to Jackson, anticipating an attack from the direction of Edward's Station. Gen. Grant suddenly massed his forces between Raymond and Bolton, Sherman moving down from Jackson, north of the railroad, and towards Edward's Station; McPherson moving towards Bolton; Blair's division and Ransom's brigade of McArthur's division arriving at Raymond from the west. McClellan's corps afterwards lay on or near the main road from Raymond to Bolton.

On the 16th the movement towards Edwards Station began, Hovey's division of McClellan's corps, followed by McPherson's on the right by the road from Bolton; Osterhaus' division, followed by Carr's, on the center by a middle road, and Smith's division, followed by Blair's on the left by the first road from Raymond to Edwards Station. Ransom's brigade afterwards moved up as a reserve behind Carr's division. The action was begun about 8 A. M., by an attempt of the enemy to turn our left, which was promptly met and checked by Smith's division. The bulk of the enemy's force was then massed upon our right and center, held by Hovey's division. The struggle here was most bitter, until about 2 P. M., when Hovey, being strengthened by Crocker, began to drive the enemy, while McClellan, having come up on the right, swung around and turned the enemy's left. Osterhaus' division, on the center, had in the meantime kept up a vigorous and steady pressure of the enemy. At about half-past 2 P. M. the day was decided in our favor, and the retreat of the enemy began. It was soon converted into an ignominious rout. We captured about 3,500 prisoners, nineteen field guns, and an immense number of small arms, and a large amount of ammunition and stores at Edwards Station, which we occupied that night.

On the 17th at daylight McClellan's corps advanced from Edwards towards Big Black, and about 4 o'clock attacked the enemy in his earth works at the railroad bridge, Carr's division moving up on the right, and Gen. Osterhaus on the left, with Gen. Smith as reserve. After fighting about two hours, with some skirmishing, our right charged in upon the left of the enemy, and our left at the same time advancing rapidly, the works were captured. We took about 2,500 prisoners and eighteen guns, the enemy retreated in great disorder over the Big Black.

Gen. Osterhaus was slightly wounded at the beginning of the fight, and his division was then commanded by Gen. A. L. Lee.

As soon as the works were taken Gen. Lee proceeded to construct a floating bridge over the Big Black, on which the corps of McClellan and McPherson crossed early next morning, and marched on Vicksburg, Sherman's corps having in the meantime, crossed on a pontoon bridge five miles above.

On the evening of the 18th, our army came in sight of the works immediately in the rear of Vicksburg, and distant from the city about two miles.

On the 19th our general movement toward the works began, Sherman on the right, McPherson in the center, and McClellan on the left.

At 2 P. M. a general charge of McClellan's division was ordered. Gen. A. L. Lee, when he was leading the 1st Brigade of Osterhaus' division, was wounded severely, but not dangerously. He is now on his way North for treatment. Our forces gained ground on that charge, and held it, but not capturing any of the rebel redoubts.

On the 20th the same style of operations was followed along the whole line, our forces creeping up slowly towards the works, our sharpshooters, at many points, getting so near as to prevent the enemy from working his guns, and our artillery being rapidly and closely advanced upon the enemy's works.

Chicago, May 28th.—Accounts from Vicksburg are still conflicting. In the battle of Champion Hill, the Federals lost 1,700 wounded; in that battle they took 3,000 prisoners, and 3,000 more at the Black River bridge. Vicksburg was attacked on the 13th inst., and a complete line of fortifications taken, with a Federal loss of 1,500. Reports from Sherman's Landing to Saturday, say that on Friday, Pemberton offered to surrender the city on certain conditions which Grant refused to allow; that an assault was made shortly afterwards, in which, after severe Federal loss, the rebels were driven to their last line of entrenchments; that the Federals had captured batteries both above and below the city, and completely surrounded it, and that Logan was guarding the Black River, with a force sufficient to keep Johnston back. Johnston is reported to be receiving large reinforcements. Rebel reports are, that the Federals have been foiled in their efforts, their loss being 10,000 men, that Vicksburg has five months' supplies, and can be taken only when these supplies are exhausted.

The report of the capture of Helena, by Price, is pronounced untrue. Apprehensions are entertained at Washington that Lee intends an advance upon that city or an invasion of Pennsylvania.

Bragg's forces have fallen back all along their lines, and there are now but few rebel troops on the Memphis-border side of Duck River. The rebel force at Tallahoma is reported at 53,000. Forrest, with his cavalry, is expected to Mississippi. Stirring news is gone from Rosecrans within ten days and it is said to be not improbable that his column is already in motion.

Beauregard has left Charleston, with most of his forces, either for Virginia or the West.

The New Orleans Era of May 5th, says: "We have good reason for saying that a large part of the forces under Gen. Hunter, and most of the iron-clads recently engaged at Charleston, are now on their way to this department. We believe that in twenty days both Mobile and Galveston will be in our possession."

Panama, May 16.—The dates from Puebla are to the 30th of April. The French were driven out of Puebla at the point of the bayonet. The Mexicans fought them for seven hours with swords and bayonets, and the loss on both sides is very heavy. It is said the French have lost 6,000. Juarez has come down to Puebla and held a council of war as to the propriety of becoming the offensive instead of the defensive party. It is thought that another attack will not be made on Puebla by the French with their present force, and it is likely they will return to the seaboard.

ENTHUSIASM FOR McCLELLAN.—When the 17th regiment New York State volunteers marched up Broadway, on their return from the seat of war, Gen. McClellan reviewed the regiment from the piazza of the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The men were hailed, and the most frantic outburst of applause went up from the whole line as their favorite commander was recognized. Cheer after cheer arose, to which compliment the General modestly bowed his acknowledgments.—Mt. News.

LAYING OF A CORNER STONE.—The corner stone of a new Catholic University was held at Chicago on Sunday. It is estimated that 15,000 persons witnessed the ceremonies, which were very imposing. Among the prominent clergymen present were Bishop Smith of Dubuque, Iowa, and Rev. F. H. Rosecrans, Bishop of Cincinnati, the brother of General Rosecrans.—Mt. News.

A draft is to be ordered in New York, just as soon as an enrollment can be completed. The state, Pennsylvania, and all the border states are deficient on the last quota. Massachusetts was not credited by the war department for 12,000 men. The mistake has been rectified, and she has in excess 3,000 men, including sailors, Californians and negroes.

Three Sioux spies in Minnesota were captured by a party of Winnebagoes on the 7th. The W's cut out their hearts, chopped their bodies into small pieces, distributed them among the tribe, had a grand war dance, and now have formally declared war against the Sioux. Affairs there are precarious.

The Democracy of Illinois are to have a State Mass Meeting June 17th.

Notings.
The democratic state committee of Illinois is to call a grand mass convention at Springfield, in behalf of free speech and to petition the administration for the release of Mr. Vallandigham.

Three large mass meetings have already been held in New Jersey to protest against Vallandigham's exile, and we see that five more are advertised to come off in the coming week.

An important engagement took place on the 25th of April, between the Russians and the Poles, near Warsaw. The Russians were defeated with great loss.

A large mass meeting for free speech was held at Detroit Monday. Robert McClellan, who was a member of President Pierce's cabinet, presided. Delegates to the Chicago convention are expected to pay their own expenses, while the roads carry for half fare.

Govs. Salomon, Morton and Yates, have all gone to Vicksburg looking to the welfare of our battle-stained heroes. Surgeons are in great demand.

The 11th Wis. captured a rebel flag and a brigade of 1,500 men at Black River bridge. Glorious!

Col. Hatch made a raid from Corinth into Alabama, bringing back 400 prisoners and 600 horses.

Three destructive fires occurred at Chicago last Monday. A machine shop and foundry, fifteen stores and saloons, and two dwellings were destroyed. Loss $20,000.

Henry Sawyer, U. S. Consul at Paramaribo, South America, has presented his salary of $2,000 for one year to the Government, to help crush out the rebellion. A noble patriot!

The bank Harvard, a new and handsome craft, is now taking on 15,000 bushels of wheat, at Sheboygan, for Liverpool and Hamburg. She is fitted up in packet style, and her cabin accommodations are sumptuous.

The Albany Times says there is not a word of truth in the announcement that Erastus Corning is about to retire from the hardware business.

Stanton expects to have 200,000 negro troops in the field in the course of six months. The expectation will, in all probability, be disappointed.

Beautiful harvests are expected in the south. A writer from Salem, Ala., says the prospect of the coming harvest will be immense.

A new democratic daily paper is to be started shortly in Boston, with a capital of $150,000. The paper will be sold for 1 cent per copy. Typical of its politics, I. C. Cypess-Aut!

An order has been issued for the establishment of a hospital, for sick and wounded Wisconsin soldiers, at Prairie du Chien. That place was selected because accessible by water, with no land carriage necessary.

The Wisconsin state convention of Universalists will be held at Oxnosh, Wednesday and Thursday, June 3d.

Rear Admiral Foote has entirely recovered from his wounds received at Fort Donelson, and is ready for active naval duty.

There are 600 loaves of hostile Indians at Devil's Lake, Minn. The farmers of Brown and Nicollet counties are leaving their farms and seeking refuge in the towns.

Why ought a woman to prefer a brewer's drayman for a husband?—Because he'll always sup-porter.

An old story says the two most precious things now included in hoops are girls and kegs of whiskey.

The last degree of impudence was recently indulged in by a goatee out West, who requested an editor who was in prison on a charge of libelling a justice of the peace, to give the prison a puff when he got out.

A very honest chap in Boston, who wished to sell his horse, advertised it as follows: "For sale, a brown horse with a Roman nose, in good condition, and very fond of traveling, having run away four times within a week."

The oldest of three brothers residing in Mountbello, N. H., recently married quite a young gal, his next younger brother married the girl's mother, and the youngest took for his wife the grandmother. Cupid in our times seldom brings about such a curious union of two families.

A new organ has been imported from Germany for the Boston Music Hall, which, it is said by the Boston Herald, will cost about $50,000 when finished.

The issue of legal tender notes has been discontinued, and the blank notes now on hand have been sealed up. The total amount of greenbacks in circulation is not far from 405,000,000.

There never was such a demand for good sheep as exists at the present time. John Forster, of Gueney county, O., recently shipped seventy-three ewes and three rams from Vermont, for which he paid $6,100.

In the Bank of England no fewer than sixty book volumes, of ledgers are daily filled with writing in keeping the accounts. To produce these sixty volumes, the paper having been previously manufactured elsewhere, eight men, three steam presses, and two hand presses, are continually kept going with the bank. In the copper-plate printing department twenty-eight thousand bank notes are thrown off daily, and so accurately is the number indicated by machinery, that to produce a single note without detection is an impossibility.

Death of Hon. George Manfield. Hon. George Manfield, Judge of the Circuit Court, breathed his last a few minutes before 12 o'clock last night, after a long and painful illness of typhoid fever. For many weeks past he lay in a very critical condition, and during the past two days, had been gradually sinking, yet up to a late hour last evening, no immediate signs of dissolution were visible. (Chicago Times, 22d)

A very singular but melancholy accident happened in Vienna. A female servant belonging to the household of the Archduke Albrecht, was crossing the place St. Etienne when a gust of wind came and threw her down. Her head came in contact with great violence, against the pavement, thereby during the teeth of a comb which fastened up her hair so deeply into her head that death ensued shortly.
